

BROCHURE WITH BASIC INFO FOR ATHENS

FOR ASYLUM SEEKERS AND REFUGEES

OCTOBER 2025

ABOUT THIS BROCHURE

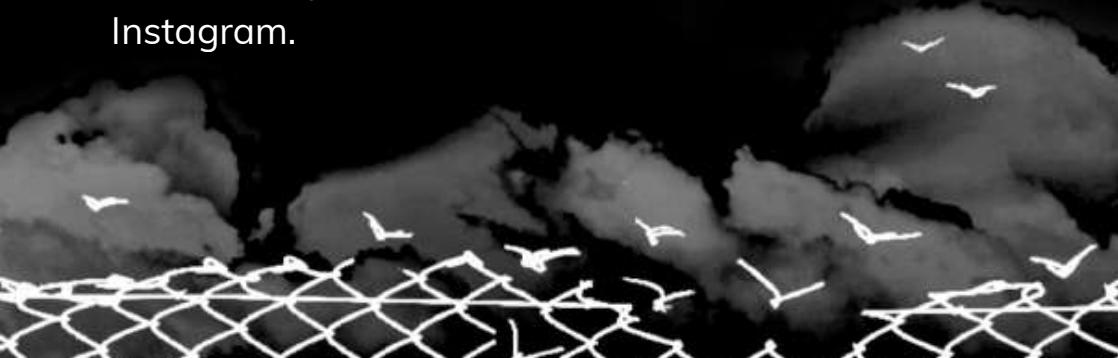

Nobody needs charity when there is justice.

The European Union and the Greek Government pursue hostile policies against refugees and advocate for the protection of Greece's borders.

Today, the Greek Government is mostly in control of official services for refugees, it limited the housing of asylum seekers to closed and controlled camps and prisons. Instead of recognizing its own responsibility for providing protection to people who had to flee from their country, the Greek State and the European Union are staging migration as a threat and outsourcing its responsibilities to non-governmental organizations.

Even though these organizations provide important services for refugees, nobody would need them if there was justice.

In this brochure, you will find the addresses and phone numbers of important services in Athens. For any information that can not be found in this brochure, please contact us on Facebook or Instagram.

THIS BROCHURE IS MADE BY

“Solidarity with Migrants”, an autonomous political group with members from all over the world, that stands in solidarity with migrants and refugees in Greece.

Our goal is to connect with the communities in the city of Athens and in the camps around it, and to struggle together against racism, imprisonment, isolation, forced evictions and all forms of oppression.

ACCOMMODATION

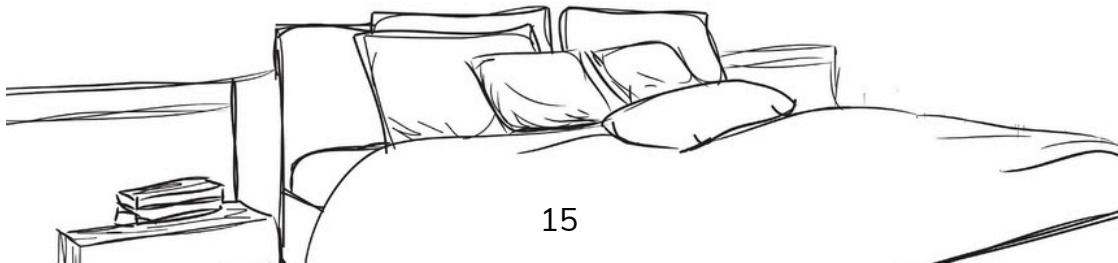

Housing is a big problem in Athens. Most state shelters are accessible only when you are holding specific medical documents, and NGO housing is often bound on repressive conditions and works mostly through referrals with long waiting lists. Therefore, it can be useful to try getting support through community centers where social workers can refer you. You can also contact us through our website if you need more information about finding shelter in a housing squat in Athens. Housing squats have waiting lists as well and are illegalized places.

AUTONOMOUS STRUCTURES

There are many places in Athens that were created by common people without cooperating with the state. The aim is to meet the basic needs of oppressed people and to organize politically together against all forms of oppression and injustice.

Many of those structures are open to anyone who wants to use them. All self-organized structures have a certain political approach behind the way they work.

KINIMATORAMA

In addition to the information on the following pages, you can find out about the different programs of self-organized spaces on:

 www.kinimatorama.net/

Press the house-button to choose only the programme for Athens (Athina) and translate the page online.

SOLIDARITY WITH MIGRANTS

You are invited to come to the Open Hours of Solidarity with Migrants every Tuesday at 7pm, at Agiou Pantaleimonos 7b, Acharnon, 104 46.

We are specifically looking forward to meeting refugees and migrants to organize together.

In creation of one essence and soul
If one member is afflicted with pain
Other members uneasy will remain
If you've no sympathy for human pain
The name of human you cannot retain
